NATURE'S REMEDIES
DR. GATES' ELECTRO-MAGNETIC PASTELS PILLS
For the Speedy and Permanent Cure of Seminal Weakness, Nocturnal, and Diurnal Emissions, Nervous and General Debility, Impotence, and all Diseases arising from Solitary Habits, or Excessive Indulgence.
These are the most common ailments of men, and middle aged and old men, who are suffering to some extent from the above diseases. Many, perhaps, are not aware of their true condition, or when assistance is really needed.
For the benefit of such, we herewith give a few of the most common symptoms, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head and Stomach, Distension of Sight, Dots and Webs before the Eyes, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Timidity, etc. For each and all of the above symptoms these remedies will be found a "Sovereign Remedy."
These remedies embrace three prescriptions: A box of Pastels, a box of Nervous Tonic Pills, and a box of Female Tonic Pills. Each box contains a full and complete treatise on the diseases of which they are cures, and should be used together in every case.
Their superiority over other modes of treatment may be best stated as follows, viz:
1. They diminish the violence of sexual excitement.
2. They immediately arrest nocturnal and diurnal emissions.
3. They remove local weakness, causing the organs to assume their natural tone and vigor.
4. They strengthen the constitution by recom-pensing nervous debility and general weakness.
5. They enliven the spirits, which are usually depressed, by expelling all exciting causes from the system.
6. By their invigorating properties they restore the patient to his natural health and vigor of manhood.
7. They cure when all other means have failed.
8. They may come within the reach of all, for we have fixed the price of the Pastels at $1 per box, and the Pills at 50 cents per box each. In ordering by mail, in addition to the price, twelve cents in stamps should be enclosed for return postage.
LADIES in want of a safe and effectual remedy for Irregularities, Suppression of the Menstrues, or any disease, peculiar to their sex, should use Dr. GATES' FEMALE Tonic Pills. Price by mail, $1 and one stamp.
CAUTION—These Pills should not be used during pregnancy, as miscarriage will be the consequence.
LADIES who, from ill-health, deformity, or any other humane and reasonable cause, deem it necessary to avoid an increase of family, can do so without incurring danger to health or constitution by the use of La Roche's French Preventive Powders. These Powders can only be obtained by addressing the General Agents, as below.
Send for Dr. GATES' Private Medical Treatise on Sexual Diseases; Price ten cents.

THE GREAT SOUTHERN WESTERN REMEDY.
For the permanent cure of Fever and Ague,
Chills, Fever, Congestive Chills, Remittent Fever, Bilious Fever, Dumb Ague, and all periodical diseases that have their origin in the miasmatic effluvia arising from decayed vegetation.
THESE "PILLS" never fail to cure all of the above named fevers, and what is better, they also act as a preventive of them occasionally, or daily, while exposed to the infection. Hence the old adage
"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."
Dr. Merwin's "Fever and Ague Pills" are presented as ALL OTHER CHILL MEDICINES, in the following particulars:
1st. They never fail to perform a speedy and permanent cure.
2d. They are recommended only for one class of diseases.
3d. They are agreeable and convenient to take,
being purely vegetable.
4th. They do not impair the organic functions of the stomach or any part of the system.
5th. They require no other medicine to prepare the system for their reception, or afterwards to allay irritation.
6th. They are not a northern "catch-penny manage," but are prepared by gentlemen who were born reared and educated under the benign influence of southern institutions.
7th. Remember when you purchase these Pills, the you are not contributing means for "Yankee Emigrant Aid Societies," or Sharp's rifles and bow knives, nor "Kane's," as you may think, but have done in buying northern articles.
We wish all to distinctly understand that this is a SOUTHERN MEDICINE, prepared from the simple plants that grow in our Woodlands, on our Rivers, Bayous, and Lakes.
If, as a special merit, we wish to call attention to the fact that in using this Medicine you will take a few Pills. Is not this preferable to swallowing a pint of nauseous nuxvomiac which, at best, in only produces the same result?
Price $1 per Bottle.
ONE DOLLAR and four cent postage stamp, inclosed to the proprietors, or to the Dispensary, or in Medicines in the Southern States, will insure a bottle of Pills by return mail.

It works equally sure.
What stronger proof of these facts can be pro-from Rev. A. W. Curtis?

ROME, MACOMBS Co., Mich., July 9, 1860.
Messrs. J. N. HARRIS & Co.:
Gentlemen:—The confidence I have in Perry Davis' Pain
Killer, as a remedy for Colds, Coughs, Burns, Sprains, and Rheumatism, for the cure of which have successfully used it, induces me to cheerfully recommend it to its virtues to others.
A few months ago, I had recourse to it to destroy a felon; although I had never heard of its being used for that purpose; but having suffered intensely from a former one, and having no other remedy at hand, I applied the Pain Killer freely for about five minutes at evening, and repeated the application very briefly the next morning, which entirely destroyed the felon, and increased my confidence in the utility of the remedy.
Yours truly,
A. W. CURTIS,
Minister of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

The Afflicted's Friend. Don't Delay to PURIFY THE BLOOD.
DR. WEAVER'S

The FRANKFORT YEOMAN will be issued daily during the session of the Legislature, which will commence on the first Monday in September. Able reporters will be employed in each House, and accurate reports of proceedings published daily. The ensuing session will be one of transcendent importance, its action involving the future external relations of the State, and that question, in turn, perhaps, involving the mighty issue of peace or war within the Commonwealth. The Yeoman, therefore, will be the most convenient and useful organ of communication between the members of the Legislature and their constituents. May we not therefore confidently anticipate a large accession to our subscription list? A little effort on the part of our friends will greatly strengthen our hands in this critical emergency; and now, more than ever, should the friends of States Rights rally to the support of their true and faithful organs. It is but a trifle to each subscriber, but the aggregate is indispensable to the publishers, to enable them to continue the issue of a vigorous and dauntless paper in defense of the sacred cause of Southern Rights, imperilled by the persistent aggressions of Northern sectional fanaticism and hatred, and attempted to be struck down by the usurpations of a Military Dictator.

The DAILY YEOMAN for the session will be $1 50. Any person procuring us five subscribers, and forwarding the money, shall have the sixth copy for his trouble.

The TRI-WEEKLY YEOMAN is published at $4 per year. The Session Daily will be sent to all the Tri-Weekly subscribers, with 50 cents additional charge. Any person procuring us five subscribers to the Tri-Weekly, and forwarding us the money, shall have the sixth copy for his trouble.

The WEEKLY YEOMAN will be furnished to subscribers during the session of the Legislature, for 50 cents; and for a year, including the session, for $2 00. Persons procuring five subscribers to the session weekly, or yearly weekly, and forwarding the money to us, shall receive the sixth copy free of charge.

Remittances may be made by mail at our risk.

An Apology.
We kept our columns open until a late hour last evening, expecting the organization of the Senate would enable us to publish the Governor's message. Disappointed in that expectation, at a late hour we could only present what the reader has before him.

To SUBSCRIBERS.—As all your names and credit-accounts are kept standing in pages of type, which type we correct by regularly posting all your remittances and orders therein, it becomes true that these pages of type are the pages of our ledger! To address your papers, we take an impression from our metallic ledger—cut its columns apart—gum their ends together—reel the web into the Mailing Machine, which as it feeds out the web, gums it—cuts off each subscriber's share—and fastens it on his paper, rendering all old forms of accounts and receipts unnecessary and misunderstandings impossible, as you get a printed receipt or statement of your account with each paper. This patent ledger, metallic though it be, will be easily kept posted, provided you all pay, so as never to allow current time to overtake your credit-accounts.

The Lexington Observer says the Government camp in Garrard county is simply for instruction. The Louisville Journal says it is only for defense. The Republican papers North say it is a preparatory step for the invasion of Tennessee. It is not unlikely that the movement comprehends all these purposes, and more.

The following is from the Cincinnati Enquirer:
Who HAS CONFIDENCE IN THE ADMINISTRATION?—The Administration at Washington seems to inspire very few of its political friends with a generous confidence in its ability, judgment, or honesty.
The Republican presses dictate the military policy and movements, as if neither the Commander-in-Chief, the Lieutenant-General, or anybody else at Washington, understood anything about their business, and especially about war.

Petitions are in circulation among the people, receiving thousands of signatures, requesting the President to remove Cameron and Welles from his Cabinet—the one for his alleged want of honesty, and the other for his inability.
Now we have bankers sending a committee to Washington to dictate to the President a certain line of policy, as a condition precedent to their taking any more of the public loan.

Then there are the Abolitionists, who are demanding that the President issue a proclamation proclaiming the freedom of the slaves, and telling him that success cannot attend our arms until that is done.

The Philadelphia Inquirer of the 30th, has the following estimate of the Confederate forces in Virginia. It is probably exaggerated, with the view of hurrying up Federal reinforcements:

POSITION OF THE ENEMY.

It is more than likely that in the course of the next two days there will be some important military movements in the immediate vicinity of Washington. It will be interesting, therefore, to know the exact position of the enemy's forces. With the aid of the maps of the vicinity of Washington heretofore published in the Inquirer, the reader will be able to follow our description. It must be borne in mind that it is now five weeks since the defeat of our army at Bull Run; that defeat has had the effect of an electric shock throughout the whole South; that it has roused the enthusiasm of the South to a higher pitch than ever; that, during the last five weeks, troops have been pouring into Virginia from all the other Southern States; that the Confederates have now in arms, according to their own accounts, forces distributed about as follows:

No. of Men.
Beauregard's forces west of Washington..... 20,000
Long's forces at and near Leesburg..... 20,000
Magruder's forces at Aquia Creek and Fredericksburg..... 20,000
Lee's forces at Potomac, York James, and Rappahannock rivers..... 12,000
At Yorktown..... 12,000
At Norfolk and Portsmouth..... 10,000
At Richmond..... 5,000
Forces of Generals Lee and Floyd in Western Virginia..... 50,000
At Lynchburg (Camp of Instruction)..... 10,000
Total..... 239,000

The disposition of the forces in the immediate vicinity of Washington is apparently in form of a crescent, the horns resting near the Chain Bridge and Shooter's Hill, and the crescent near Ball's and Bailey's Cross Roads. There are strong detachments at Falls Church, at Vienna, at Fairfax, at Centerville, and at Germantown. The great Parrot gun, captured by the enemy at Bull Run, has been brought up by them to Bailey's Cross Roads, and was placed in position there yesterday, behind their entrenchments. It is not believed, however, that the Confederates indicate any design of an immediate attack on Washington, but only a closer approach to it on all sides, in order to be ready for an attack if that measure is finally decided on.

AFFAIRS IN WESTERN VIRGINIA.

It is to be feared that Gen. Rosecrans has not accomplished what the Government expected from him. Not any part of skill or generalship on his part, but owing to the want of a sufficient number of troops. The indications now are, that unless he is speedily and largely reinforced, he and all the Federal troops now there, will be driven out of Western Virginia. If this does take place, the mischief will be only begun. The expulsion of the Federal troops will be followed by the expulsion of the members of the Legislature of the new State of Kanawha or Western Virginia, by that of the Governor of the new State, and probably by the imposition of very heavy burdens upon all the Union people of that part of the country. The Rebels will then seize upon the western part of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad from Parkersburg to Cumberland, and fortify all the important points in Western Virginia. If they do this, it will protract the war indefinitely. That they are energetically moving in that direction will be evident from the following facts:

Immediately after the battle of Bull Run, Gen. Lee was sent by the Confederate War Department on a secret expedition into Western Virginia. He passed through Gordonsville, Charlottesville, Staunton, and Covington. At each of these places he found detachments of troops which had been sent there and placed under his orders, so that on leaving Covington he found himself at the head of a well-appointed force of forty thousand men. With this army he crossed the Allegheny Mountains, rested and refreshed his men at Lewisburg, crossed the Flat Top Mountains, and encamped on the Banks of the Gauley river. Here he spent some days in drilling and moderately exercising his men and getting them accustomed to the maneuvers of brigades and field evolutions.

In the meantime, Gen. Floyd (John B. Floyd, late Secretary of War), with a column of 15,000 troops, raised in the southwestern counties of Virginia, had been moving in the same direction. On the 10th of August, he met Lee's forces on the line of the Great Southern Railroad, where he finished the organization of his division, and started on his way to the North. On the 12th his column was at Paris; on the 15th, at Union, in Monroe county, and on the 17th, at Lewisburg, in Greenbrier county. From that point he crossed over the Flat Top Mountains, by the same route taken a few days afterwards by Gen. Lee's army, and proceeding to a spot near the Gauley Bridge, awaited the arrival of Gen. Lee. Just as the forces on the 24th inst., it was learned from accounts, that the two Generals proceeded along the Gauley river, crossed that stream, attacked Col. Tyler at Summersville, and defeated him with heavy loss on the 26th.

We have no further data as to the movements of these Rebel Generals. But it is easy to see that they have immediately followed up this slight success by a further advance into the bowels of the land. It is more than probable that before this time both General Lee and Gen. Jackson have advanced upon Gen. Lee. Rosecrans upon one side, while Gen. Lee and Gen. Floyd have attacked him upon the other.

WE EXPECT TO HOLD FIFTEEN STATES IN THE UNION BY FORCE IN PREPOSTEROUS THEATRE OF A CIVIL WAR ACCOMPANIED BY THE MOST HORRIBLE INSURRECTIONS. IT IS TOO MONSTROUS TO BE ENTERTAINED FOR A MOMENT. IF OUR SISTER STATES MUST LEAVE US IN THE NAME OF HEAVEN, LET THEM GO IN PEACE.—Editor Secord's Letter to the Boston Courier, Feb. 22d, 1861.

"I DON'T UNDERSTAND HOW A MAN CAN CLAIM TO BE A FRIEND OF THE UNION, AND YET IN FAVOR OF WAR UPON TEN MILLIONS OF PEOPLE IN THE UNION. YOU CAN NOT COVER IT UP MUCH LONGER UNDER THE PRETEXT OF LOVE FOR THE UNION. 'WAR IS DISUNION, CERTAINLY INEVITABLE, FINAL AND IRREPRESSIBLE.'—S. A. Douglas.

The Richmond (Va.) Enquirer, of the 30th, has this paragraph in reference to the movements of Gen. Floyd:

NEWS FROM FLOYD'S BRIGADE.—The mail agent on the Central cars yesterday afternoon reports that news has reached Staunton to the purport that Gen. Floyd had been unexpectedly attacked by the enemy, and sustained a loss of twenty-five of his men; that he started early next morning in pursuit of the retreating foe, and succeeded in surrounding their camp with his cavalry, (120 men,) and captured 175 prisoners and 30 wagons.

Fight in Western Virginia.

WHEELING, Sept. 2.
The Secessionists encamped at Worthington, Marion county, 400 in number, were attacked by Colonel Crossman, of General Kelly's staff, with two companies of the United States troops, a little after daylight this morning. The Secessionists were too strong for him, and he was obliged to fall back with the loss of two men.

The expedition from here last night had not reached the scene of action at our latest advices.

Two pieces of artillery were sent to Crossman's relief from Clarksburg to-day. He reports that he can hold the enemy in check until reinforced.

[Special Dispatch to the Courier.]

NASHVILLE, Sept. 2, 1861.

Our special dispatches from Richmond to-day say Congress passed a retaliatory law, and it has been approved by the President.

It is retrospective in its operation to the 21st of May, and sequesters all the property owned by enemies in the Confederate States, except stocks, Confederate and State.

It differs from a confiscation bill, only in holding the property of enemies for particular ends, subject to claims for indemnity and the future disposition of the Government. It is estimated by members of Congress that property to the amount of three hundred million dollars will be subject to the provisions of this bill, fifty million of which is in the city of New Orleans alone. It is made the duty of every citizen to give information to agents controlling the property of enemies, and a failure to give such information subjects parties to a fine of five thousand dollars and imprisonment one month.

Each Confederate judge is authorized to appoint a receiver in each section of his district. The President is authorized to appoint three Commissioners to hold a court at the seat of Government, to hear and adjudge claims under this act. Col. Daniel Ruggles is promoted to Brigadier-General, and assigned duty at Pensacola. Congress adopted a resolution providing for supplying troops with fresh bread and provisions, and allowing rations to chaplains.

Garrard received 83,151 votes, James R. Barwick received 3,845 votes, Gobrias Terry received 12,160 votes. W. G. Stone received 5 votes, Jeff. Brown received 4 votes, J. W. Moore received 2 votes, D. White received 112 votes, H. S. Shondy received 2 votes, James Garrett received 308 votes, and T. L. Jones received 35 votes.

Wherefore, James H. Garrard having received a majority of the votes given at said election for said office, is duly elected Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Kentucky for the next ensuing constitutional term of said office.

B. MAGOFFIN,
THOS. B. MONROE, JR.,
ANDREW J. JAMES,
Secretary of State,
Attorney General.

From St. Louis.

St. Louis, Sept. 2.

The Democrat has advice direct from Gen. Thompson's camp at Benton, Scott county, to the effect that all the rebel baggage at that and other points is being hastily removed to New Madrid, and that Thompson and Hardee's forces would endeavor to effect a junction, and fall back on Sikeston, the terminus of the Cairo and Fulton railroad, where it is supposed they would make a stand, and give Gen. Prentiss battle. The combined forces of Thompson, Hardee, and Pillow's forces is estimated at thirty thousand men.

Reports were current yesterday and to-day that Gen. Prentiss had surprised a Peace and Neutrality Meeting in Mercer County, Kentucky.

According to previous notice, a very large and enthusiastic meeting of the friends of the peace and neutrality of Kentucky was held to-day, the 22d of August, at 1 o'clock P. M., in Harrodsburg. On motion of Capt. W. A. Cook, Major W. A. Hoar was unanimously elected chairman, who, on taking his seat, briefly explained the objects of the meeting, stating that they were intended, if possible, to keep peace within the borders of Kentucky.

The following gentlemen were chosen Vice Presidents: Dr. Thos. H. Moore, John A. Burford, Dr. Wm. Campbell, John P. Lapey, Wm. E. Clelland, Francis Kirby, and James Forsythe, Jr. B. C. Allen, Dr. Thos. J. Moore, Jacob G. Driskill, and Walter Wheatley were appointed secretaries. On motion of Capt. P. B. Thompson, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the people of Kentucky have always been true and faithful to their country and the Constitution of the United States, and that they are opposed to the existing civil war, which has produced an unnatural, horrid, and lamentable strife, for which Kentucky is in no wise responsible.

Resolved, That we are in favor of peace, and the true position of Kentucky is that of neutrality—neutrality in good faith; and that it is the duty of her citizens, in our opinion, to maintain it, and to stand firmly by the fixed position of self-defense.

Resolved, That we are satisfied the Union cannot be preserved by the civil war now in progress, and that we concur in the sentiment of the Hon. Edward Everett, in the declaration made by him in his letter of acceptance of the Union nomination for Vice President in 1860, in which he declared that the suggestion that the Union can be maintained by the numerical preponderance and military prowess of one section exerted to coerce the other into submission, is as self-contradictory as it is dangerous. It comes loaded with the death-sword from fields wet with brothers' blood. If the vital principle of all republican governments is the "consent of the governed," much more does a Union of co-equal sovereign States require as its basis the harmony of its members, and their voluntary co-operation in its organic functions.

Resolved, That Abraham Lincoln, the present President of the United States, has usurped the prerogatives of the legislative branch of the government, and has disregarded the constitution and set the Presidential powers above what was created by the Constitution of the United States:

1st. He has unconsciously assumed the prerogative of suspending commerce between the Northern and Southern States, and of blocking the ports of certain States—a prerogative which, if it exists, belongs to Congress, and not to the President, to exercise.

2d. He has usurped the power of Congress to suspend the great writ of habeas corpus, a power exercised by him in disregard of the Constitution, and a power which the Constitution Great Britain, whenever it was desired, has denied to the British Crown.

3. He has not only arrogated to himself the power vested in Congress of organizing, arming, and disciplining the militia, but he has usurped the rights reserved by the Constitution to the States respectively of appointing the field and general officers of the militia.

4. He has, in violation of the Constitution, deprived persons, over whom he has no control or authority, of their liberty without due process of law.

5. He has violated the Constitution in raising armies to carry on a civil war, and in the face of the laws of Congress, which declare that he shall not call an army into the field, nor even to suppress a rebellion, for a longer period than thirty days after the meeting of Congress; he has raised armies to serve for three years or during the war, which has not been declared by Congress, and to carry on which it had made no appropriation, and which it had not recognized.

6th. He has violated the Constitution by appointing officers to positions in his army without authority of law, and which, if created by Congress, should be filled in accordance with the constitutional provision "reserving to the States respectively the right to appoint officers of the militia."

7. He has disregarded the Constitution of his country, which provides for the right of the people to be secure in their persons, papers, and effects against unreasonable seizures and searches, and which shall not be violated; and which further provides that no warrants shall issue except upon a probable cause, supported by oath and affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched and the persons or things to be seized.

8. He has involved the government in debt without authority of Congress, and without consultation with the legislative department of the government, and has endeavored to do this when the Congress has refused, prior to its adjournment, to furnish men or money for such purpose.

9. He has usurped powers not delegated to him by the Constitution of his country, and instead of preserving, defending, and protecting it, he has violated it and suffered it to be outraged.

10. He has by his improper, unconstitutional, and unwise proceedings, brought upon our people a heavy direct tax to pay the interest upon the government debt created by an unnatural and bloody war.

Resolved, That the efforts of the Republican party now in power for the last forty years have been used to impair and destroy the institution of slavery, and that we believe that one of the principal objects of the Administration and the leaders of the Republican party in carrying on the present war is to subjugate the South far enough to secure the ultimate extinction of slavery in all of the Southern States.

Resolved, That we rejoice to see the movement of many patriotic citizens in the North and Northwest in behalf of peace, and for the purpose of aiding in the accomplishment, we declare our approval of holding a Peace Convention in Frankfort, at such time in September or October as may be agreed upon by the friends of peace throughout the State; and further

Resolved, That such of the voters of Mercer county as favor the object of said Convention, are hereby appointed delegates to attend the same.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the various papers of Louisville, Frankfort, and Lexington, with a request that they publish the same.

After the adoption of the resolutions the meeting was ably and eloquently addressed by Col. Roger W. Hanson and Hon. A. G. Talbot, until a very late hour in the afternoon, when an adjournment took place until 7 o'clock. Upon reassembling at the hour appointed, James B. Beck took the stand, and was followed by W. C. P. Breckinridge and Col. Hanson. The vast crowd was entertained by the ladies, who were present in great numbers, gave great zest to the occasion, and elicited many handsome remarks from the distinguished speakers.
